- I learned a lot about film and how to analyze/critique it.
- i really enjoyed this film course as it exposed me to several new avant grande films that i was not aware of.
- Very productive, well-structured class in which I learned a lot.

2 - How challenging, rigorous or rewarding was the course?

5 (Very)	(5)	2	16.67%		4.08

- the assignments and the readings we were given were challenging and took a lot of time however we were provided with more than enough help in order to complete them.
- It was challenging at times to watch and read about films that one doesn't typically encounter, but it was very interesting. I feel that I definitely have greater knowledge of film and moving image techniques and the kind of meaning they can create when used.
- I was always really inspired and humbled by the content provided in this class. The readings were all incredibly interesting and all of the films were really great, i felt that both elements of content in the class were actually very informative for my personal art practice. I feel like I know much more what type of writer I am now and the essay prompts were really stimulating. I was able to write at least one essay that I feel was incredibly relevant to the work I'm making. I write a lot about my art, so honing these skills has been incredibly valuable.
- weekly writings and 2 big papers- fair amount of work

3 - How productive were the class discussions or critiques?

Response Option	Weight	Frequency	Percent	Percent Responses	Means
5 (Very)	(5)	1	8.33%		3.50
4	(4)	6	50%
3	(3)	3	25%

12/15 (80%)	3.50	0.90	4.00

- the class discussions although it did not happen very often were very good, most people participated in all of the discussions and we were able to gain new perspectives.
- Pretty productive; it was just that people were very quiet in that class during discussions and participation rate was low...I was one of those that talked most, and that's saying a lot.
- The class (myself included) was incredibly quiet.
- I think that Ian asked really engaging questions and I was always happy to participate in the conversations he was proposing, but the rest of the class really didn't participate in discussions at all, which was really more their responsibility but I almost wish it had been a graded requirement to participate in discussions. I feel like if more students had been held to the expectations to participate everyone's learning would have been more fruitful.
- I found the films and lectures presented were really great, but it felt like a lot of the people in the class were either not interested in the topic or too shy to talk.

4 - What is your overall evaluation of the instructor?

Ian Jones

Response Option	Weight	Frequency	Percent	Percent Responses				Means
5 (Excellent)	(5)	7	58.33%

Return Rate	Mean	STD	Median
12/15 (80%)	4.50	0.67	5.00

- the teacher was very good and kind. he gave us a lot of help in all our assignments and was a very fair grader. sometimes the constant film watching could be a bit tiring but apart from that ian was an excellent teacher.
- Patient and supportive, and always gets things done on time.
- He seems genuinely excited about what he teaches and is very open to being asked questions and deeply analyzing the material we studied. He always makes sure the students are heard and has a lecture style which is very engaging because it's clear that he cares about what he's talking about. I feel that he also particularly helped me with vocabulary and deepening my understanding of rhetoric and the many different ways it can exist in art and writing.
- His each and every comments and feedbacks are helpful to develop my essay!

5 - Did the instructor foster a respectful and inclusive classroom environment?

Ian Jones

Return Rate	Mean	STD	Median

- the environment was extremely respectful between all the students and the teacher.
- He gave people that were not saying much chances to participate and no one had side conversations while someone was talking, but he could have been better about laptops and phones. He may be too nice to call people out, and while that's not a bad thing, the two girls texting and surfing the internet while a film was being played was quite distracting.
- I was really happy that he provided trigger warnings for the content he was showing. There was nothing i personally found offensive or too intense that we viewed, but it created a safe environment which I think is crucial to learning. The content he showed was also very informed on many important social issues and representative of diverse identities.
